

OOS Fall Meeting
Cameron University -- Lawton, OK
October 26 – 28, 2007

The Fall meeting of the Oklahoma Ornithological Society will be held in Lawton, OK this year. Lawton is home to the Wichita Mountains National Wildlife Refuge, with Hackberry Flat Wildlife Management Area minutes away at Frederick. Field trips are planned to both of these areas. On Saturday morning we will have a private, guided tour of Wichita NWR to bird and hear the elk bugling. On Sunday morning we will go to Hackberry Flat WMA; however, because it will be hunting season, we will not go out really early (time to be announced.) We are pleased to announce that Dr. Michael Patten with the University of Oklahoma/Sutton Center will be our guest speaker for the Saturday evening banquet. Dr. Patten has done extensive research on the birds of Mexico. You won't want to miss his presentation!
